As a twenty-ninth, separate and affirmative defense, Plaintiff's and the putative class members' claims for injunctive relief are barred because they have an adequate and complete remedy at law, and/or they cannot make the other requisite showings to obtain injunctive relief.

THIRTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a thirtieth, separate and affirmative defense, Plaintiff's and/or the putative class members' claims are barred by the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, 29 U.S.C., §1001, et seq., ("ERISA") to the extent they claim damages in the form of lost pension or retirement benefits, other fringe benefits or other matters covered by ERISA.

THIRTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a thirty-first, separate and affirmative defense, Plaintiff and the putative class members are barred from asserting each and every alleged cause of action contained in the Complaint, and from otherwise asserting any right to relief against Defendants GB and/or GBBRG, because Plaintiff and the putative class members and/or their agents at all times ratified the acts, omissions, representations and courses of conduct of Defendants GB and GBBRG.

////

THIRTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a thirty-second, separate and affirmative defense, Plaintiff's and the putative class members' causes of action are uncertain.

THIRTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a thirty-third, separate and affirmative defense, Plaintiff's and the putative class members' causes of action are barred to the extent they allege claims under Labor Code and Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq., since those claims violate the rights of Defendants GB and GBBRG to substantive and procedural due process as provided under the United States and California Constitution on the grounds that the damages, if any, of each putative class member and each putative represented person require complicated proof of numerous individualized issues, as serious fundamental due process questions are raised, and administrative proceedings are available through the Department of Industrial Relations and/or the Labor Commissioner to provide the putative class members and putative represented persons with an inexpensive and effective remedy.

THIRTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a thirty-fourth, separate and affirmative defense, Plaintiff and the putative class members are not entitled to recover any penalty damages, such as those Plaintiff seeks under Labor Code section 203, or the other causes of action alleged in the Complaint, and any award of such damages or penalties would, in general, or under the facts of each putative class member's particularized claim, violate Defendant GB and GBBRG's constitutional rights under the provisions of the United States Constitution and California Constitutions, including, but not limited to, the due process clauses of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, and the Excessive Fines and the Cruel and Unusual Punishment clauses of the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution, as well as the Due Process and Excessive Fine clauses contained in the California Constitution.

////

THIRTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a thirty-fifth, separate and affirmative defense, any claim for putative damages or penalties for the subject causes of action are not permissible, therefore, Plaintiff and the putative class members are limited to the remedies provided by statute.

THIRTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a thirty-sixth, separate and affirmative defense, penalties under California Labor Code §226.7 are unconstitutional.

THIRTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a thirty-seventh, separate and affirmative defense, Plaintiff's and the putative class members' Complaint, and each and every allegation therein, is barred since, at all times, Defendant GB and GBBRG's conduct was not wrongful.

THIRTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As a thirty-eighth, separate and affirmative defense, Defendants GB and GBBRG do not presently know all of the facts and circumstances respecting Plaintiff's and the putative class members' claims. Defendants GB and GBBRG therefore reserve the right to amend this Answer should they later discover facts demonstrating the existence of additional affirmative defenses.

WHEREFORE, Defendants GB and GBBRG pray:

- a. That Plaintiff's Complaint be dismissed with prejudice and that Plaintiff and the putative class take nothing thereby;
- b. That the purported class not be certified;
- c. That judgment be entered in favor of Defendants GB and GBBRG on all claims and that they be awarded all relief due as determined by the Court;
- d. That Defendants GB and GBBRG's costs, expenses, and attorney fees in defense of this action be taxed to Plaintiff;

1 e. For any other relief to which Defendants GB and GBBRG may be entitled.
